

More Walls

December 4 & 5, 2017

The west wall of the North Wing is up. Lifting and positioning the North wall of the North Wing (on the right). And stabilizing the wall in the photo below.

The walls are up on the East Wing. The guys are putting the east wing roof trusses together on the ground.

Some of the trusses are up already.

An note of interest: The shower units are already in the rooms!!

A bit cold yet to use!!
