

Windows & Shingles

January 24-27, 2018

The garages were filled with windows, but slowly they were placed into the new building

Prepping and installing windows

Windows all in on the south side of the building. Looking great!

Shingling continues on the south side of the building.

The windows are nearly all gone from the garages!