

Making Room—May, 2018

The landscape is continually changing. Now some trees on the east side of the building had to lose their stand in honor of the new Personal Care Home.

