Prepping East Wing Ramp

North Wing Ramp in waiting

Supply Truck with ramp building supplies

East Wing Ramp ready

The work goes on

Here it is all finished. This picture was taken from the North end of the North Wing looking toward the East end of the East Wing. I understand there will be railings added yet. I took this picture on Tuesday, October 23, 2018

Pile of bags of insulation for inside the building yet

A peek through the window at one of the rooms drywalled on the North Wing

In the left foreground you can see where the new sidewalk meets up with the Pineview sidewalk outside the Northwest door across from the Chapel.
