

A Sneak Peak at Progress

April and May, 2019

---

Some of the following are shared photos, as the “regular reporter” was unable to follow the progress personally, but am sharing a few photos from others. Sorry we don’t have more at this time.

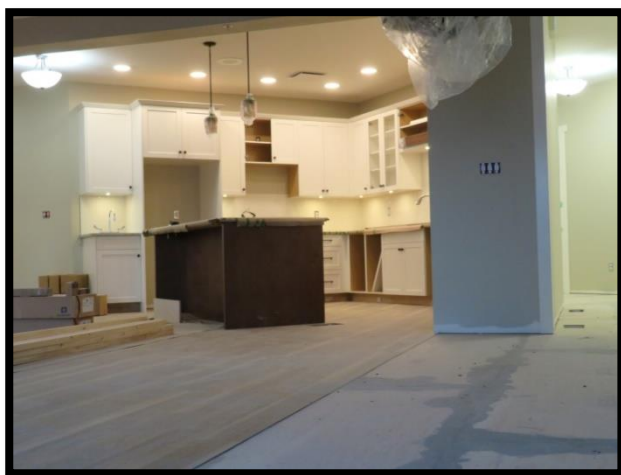

Going through the front door

Looking down one of the hallways

The individual air conditioners have been placed in each suite

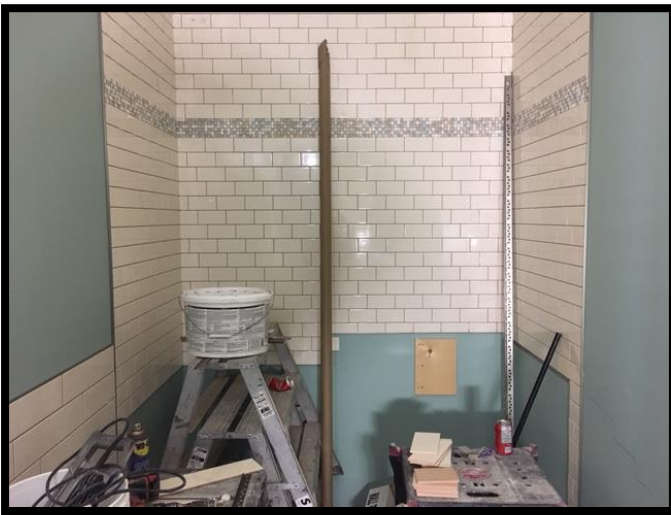

In the “Common and Kitchen Area”—late in the evening installing the flooring
