That mark our place; and in the sky the larks, still bravely singing, fly. Scarce heard amid the guns below. We are the dead, short days ago. We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow, Loved and were loved and now we lie in Flanders Fields. Take up our quarrel with the foe to you, from failing hands, we throw the torch, be yours to hold it high. If ye break faith with us, who die we shall not sleep, though poppies grow in Flanders Fields.
